

FALL PHOTO CONTEST

GUIDELINES

By submitting your photos, you give us permission to share them on our website, Instagram page, Facebook page, or in print materials. It is the photographer's responsibility to obtain the consent of any person(s) depicted in photo submissions.

1. Photographers must be registered and have all photos submitted by Monday, November 8th, before 5 pm (EST) to be officially entered into the contest.
2. Photos must be taken at a qualifying COL property and submitted during the time frame of October 1st, 2024 to November 8th, 2024.
3. Any photos submitted that contain a person/persons require photographers to obtain consent prior to submission. The photographer is responsible for obtaining a legally enforceable waiver or verbal consent from any photographed person(s). Chikaming Open Lands reserves the right to require photographers to submit evidence of the subject's legal consent to be photographed for the submitted photo, which may include a signed waiver from the subject or the subject's legal guardian or representative.
4. Photos should accurately represent the subject and the scene as it appears. Digitally altered photos beyond cropping, spotting for dust, color/contrast, and exposure adjustments will not be considered.
5. Any photograph submitted to Chikaming Open Lands is subject to display as a part of COL's 2025 Gallery Hike. Each displayed photograph will include the photographer's first and last name, business (if applicable), the subject matter, and preserve.
6. Don't forget to have fun and tag us on social media @chikamingopenlands! We are excited to see your favorite parts of each preserve during this colorful season.
